The Order of Sages is a secret all-male group of mages that was created after the downfall of The Brotherhood of Sorcerers. It was created by Michael Morvain, a powerful yet jealous sorcerer who hated Philippa Eilhart and decided to create his own group called the Order of Sages. As an all-male group, they do not invite females to the group and have a dislike towards sorceresses whom they find to be too ambitious and overly incompetent.

History

The Order of the Sages, like the Lodge of Sorceresses, was founded weeks after the fall of Brotherhood of Sorcerers in June 1267, as a result of the Thanned Coup. Michael Morvain a old lover of Philippa Eilhart. He was jealous of her and resented her power and influence, which led him to create his own organization. The Order of the Sages was founded with the intention of surpassing the Lodge of Sorceresses and, in particular, Philippa Eilhart.

The organization led by Philippa Eilhart had much more involvement in the mid-13th century than the Order of the Sages, this allowed the Order to survive longer. However after the Witch Hunts and Philippa's death, the Order of the Sages began to gradually gain more influence and power. They used their resources to manipulate events from the shadows, taking advantage of the power vacuum left by the fall of the Brotherhood and the Lodge.

One of their most notable interventions was during the War of the Unicorns in 1309. The Order played a crucial role in the conflict, working behind the scenes to ensure their preferred outcome.
